MAHOMED VAHED is a graduate of the International Islamic University, Islamabad, Pakistan, who has 20 years of diverse legal experience. He was a Magistrate, a practicing Advocate and a University Law Lecturer. He also has 15 years of Islamic Banking experience, the last five years as an Executive. Adv. Vahed now pursues his passion as a Mind Change Consultant working closely with corporates and the youth. He runs the Young Leaders Academy mentoring leaders of the future. He has coordinated an Islamic Finance, Banking and Law course at tertiary institutions for many years. He is a prolific writer having authored twelve books with his last two on Public Speaking. He and Edris Khamissa the founders of a Public Speaking Academy.

EDRIS KHAMISSA is an International Consultant in Education and Human Development. His passion and expertise in English culminated in his nomination as the Chairman of the English Society of South Africa. He has conducted numerous workshops in over 20 countries. His expertise is in self-development and curriculum design. He also conducts motivation and training for businesses and the youth. He is a regular guest on national TV and community Radio Stations. He has authored a book on public speaking and with Adv. Vahed and is a co-founder of a Public Speaking Academy. He is an expert on parenting and marriage. All in all he has tremendous faith in our capacity to pursue excellence .

I thoroughly enjoyed the book "Embrace the Joys of Public Speaking." Although I have been doing public speaking for decades and I have done extensive research for my book Speaking for Change, I am inspired by the wealth of new information and profound wisdom. The advice proffered is practical and relevant. It makes for compelling reading.
